Five of the Best... THE LONDON DESIGN FESTIVAL

1 DESIGN JUNCTION

In only four years, Design Junction has become a must-visit, partly thanks to its industrial location, which beautifully offsets the curated selection of modern designs. 17-21 September, The Sorting Office, New Oxford Street WC1A 1BA; thedesignjunction.co.uk

Robin and Lucienne Day at their home in Cheyne Walk, Chelsea, circa 1960s

4 AT HOME WITH THE DAYS

An exhibition and online auction of more than 100 artefacts and furniture from the homes of Robin and Lucienne Day, the British giants of design who both died in 2010. All proceeds go to the Robin and Lucienne Day Foundation. 17-21 September at Twentytwentyone 18c River Street EC1R 1XN

2 100% DESIGN

The daddy of the design shows celebrates its 20th birthday this year. Predominantly a trade show, it is open to the public on Saturday 20 September. 17-20 September at Earls Court; 100percentdesign.co.uk

Coucou Manou, an emerging brand on show at 100% Design

3 THE WISH LIST

This project was instigated by Terence Conran and promises to be hugely exciting. Ten up-and-coming designers have been paired with an established industry mentor, such as Paul Smith, to produce said mentor's wished-for piece at the Benchmark furniture workshop. 13-21 September at V&A; wishlistcdf.info

5 MINI MODERNS REMIX

Mini Moderns, the Camberwell-based design duo behind some of the loveliest 'modern-retro' print designs of recent years, is staging a takeover of the shop at the Southbank Centre. 1-30 September; minimoderns.com
