

COUNTRY & TOWN HOUSE

THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS

SEPTEMBER 2016 £3.60

A HUNTING WE WILL GO

James Delingpole's ode to the chase

CALL OF THE WILD

The popstar turned deer farmer

AUTUMN'S HARVEST

Food to forage

INDIAN SUMMER

British polo returns to Asia

Country Sports

How to look stylish on a shoot

THE GUIDE

ART · CULTURE · BOOKS · PEOPLE

LAPADA

Glaswegian painter, Heather Nevay, uses colour and symbolism to express heroism, weakness and fear (pictured). You'll find her work in Berkeley Square as LAPADA returns for its eighth year, marking the start of the autumn art season. As well as contemporary art, there will be antiques, design pieces and decorative arts, from dealers vetted by a committee of 70 specialists. 13–18 Sept, lapadalondon.com

PHOTO: THE EMPTY ROOM BY HEATHER NEVAY, OIL ON CANVAS FROM PORTAL PAINTERS £8,950